AWARD

This is a reference made by the Government to this Tribunal for adjudication of the dispute between the above parties. The schedule attached to the order of reference reads as follows:

"Whether the demand of the workmen employed in M/s. Gomantak Ltd., Panaji, for 7 hours work per day and 42 hours work per week with effect from 1-1-1979 is legal and justified.

If the answer be in the negative to what relief, if any, are the aforementioned workmen entitled to?"

2. After issues were framed by my Ld. Predecessor by my order dated 7-1-1983, the following issue was added to be deemed as preliminary: "Whether the employer proves that the order of reference as it is, is defective and ambiguous and hence not maintainable?"

This issue was disposed off by my order dated 4-4-1983, in which it was held that since the order of reference consists of 2 different parts, independent of each other, and only the first part of the order is maintainable, there was no need of rejecting the entire order of reference due to the vagueness of the second part and so it was decided that the first part of the order was maintainable and the second part was rejected due to its vagueness.

3. The matter then proceeded with the evidence of the parties on the remaining issues. In the course of evidence, the parties arrived at an amicable settlement, the terms of which are as follows:

"1. In view of the fact that photo-composing system has been introduced in the press of the Company, Management agrees for 42 hours a week working with 7 hours a day for its non-journalists employees working at its press at St. Inez, Panaji, Goa, with effect from 5th May, 1986, or from the date the Honourable Industrial Tribunal passes a consent award to this effect, whichever is later.

2. The Union accepts the above proposal of the Management and treats their entire dispute as contained in reference No. IT/22/79 as fully and finally settled.

3. Both the parties agree to jointly file this settlement before the Hon'ble Industrial Tribunal, Goa, Daman &amp; Diu, for passing a consent award in terms of this settlement and dispose off the case."

4. I have carefully considered the above terms and arrived at the conclusion that they are fair and just to both the parties. Hence, I pass the following order.

ORDER

Consent Award in terms of the above settlement is hereby made and the order of reference is disposed off. Each party to bear its own costs.

AWARD

This common award shall dispose off the above 2 applications, since the point of law raised is common to both of them.

2. The above applications have been filed by the applicants under Section 33C(2) of the I.D.A., 1947, in short the Act, against the above Opponent, claiming from the latter certain amounts which are specified in the annexures to their applications.

3. The Employer Opponent, in its reply, has raised the preliminary objection concerning the jurisdiction of this Tribunal, namely that this Tribunal has not been specifically appointed by the Government to entertain such applications, as required under Section 33C(2) of the Act and, therefore, has no jurisdiction to entertain them.

4. Preliminary issue concerning the jurisdiction was framed and the parties heard.

5. Section 33C(2) of the Act is clear to the effect that only such Labour Courts as specified by the Government are competent to entertain an application filed under the said provision. The Supreme Court also has held in the case of Treogi Nath and others V/s. Indian Iron Ore and Steel Company and others, reported in LIC 1968 page 193 that jurisdiction under Section 33C(2) can be exercised only by Courts Specified in that behalf and that the mere fact that the Labour Court has been constituted under Section 7(1) of the Act for the purpose of adjudication of an industrial dispute as well as performing other functions that may be assigned to it, does not mean that Court is automatically specified as the Court for the purpose of exercising jurisdiction under Section 33C(2) of the Act.

Since it is not proved that this Court has been specified by the Government as the proper court to entertain such applications, I cannot proceed with these applications and, consequently, pass the following order:

ORDER

As this Tribunal has not been specifically appointed by the Government to entertain these applications, as required under Section 33C(2) of the Act, it has no jurisdiction to entertain the same and, hence, I dismiss these applications and leave each party to bear their own costs.

AWARD

This Award shall partly dispose of the applicant's application referred to above, claiming from the Opponent the total amount of Rs. 98,754.96 of his back salary and bonus till June 1985, as per the specification given in the annexure to the application.

2. The Opponent, in its written statement, admitted its liability regarding back wages to the extent of Rs. 82,417.34, and contended that from the said amount Rs. 6,424.49 and Rs. 1,854.39 had to be deducted towards Employees Provident Fund (E.P.F.) and E.S.I. contribution and so the total amount payable to the applicant would be only Rs. 74,138.46. Regarding bonus, the Opponent would be liable to pay the total amount of Rs. 6,552.43 for the years 1975-76 to 1983-84, as per the details given in the written statement and so the total amount payable to the applicant would be Rs. 80,690.89.

3. In his rejoinder, the applicant agreed that the Opponent is entitled to deduct Rs. 6,424.49 only for E.P.F. but did not agree with the deduction for E.S.I., on the ground that he was not availing the benefit under E.S.I. during the period from 5-7-1985 till date. As such, the wages payable to the applicant after deducting E.P.F. would be Rs. 75,992.85.

4. As the employer was willing to pay to the workman the non disputed amount and the work manager to receive it, the Court suggested to the parties that the claim be partly settled so far the non disputed amount is concerned, and the case proceeded with regarding the disputed portion. Accordingly, the parties filed the terms of settlement which are as follows:

1. The Company shall pay Rs. 50.000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) by cheque, to the workman Mr. Kanta Ghatwal, as 'on account' payment;
2. The balance amount of claim, if any, shall be paid after the Hon'ble Labour Court decides on the issue of:
  - (a) Whether the workman is entitled for the ex-gratia payment @ 11.6 p.c. for the accounting years 1978-79 to 1983-84;

(b) Whether the wages for the period 5th July, 1975 to 30th June, 1985 attracts for deduction under the provisions of the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948.

3. The above agreement is without prejudice to the objection of the Company about the jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Labour Court to decide the present application;

4. Both the parties jointly request the Hon'ble Labour Court to pass an interim order in terms of this settlement."

5. The above terms are, as per my suggestion regarding the main points, and so I accept them and pass the following order:

ORDER

Consent Award as per the above terms is hereby made and the non disputed portion of the claim is disposed off. Now the case to proceed with regarding the disputed portion. Fixed on 11-7-86 at 10.30 a.m. Inform the parties.
